

DEPARTMENT PUBLIC LAW

2021_2 EXAMINATION QUESTIONS.

COURSE TITLE: OIL AND GAS LAW 11

COURSE CODE: PUL412 (3 UNITS)

TIME ALLOWED: 3 HOURS

INSTRUCTIONS: ANSWER FOUR QUESTIONS IN ALL

QUESTION ONE IS COMPULSORY

1a. Crude oil is captured in the stages of exploration, development and production. The combination of these stages is usually referred to as the upstream sector in the oil industry. After the granting of permit to survey. What do you do next?

b. It has been said that Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries OPEC has massively done well in so many areas of development of petroleum industries in the member nations. Is it true?

2. A survey permit granted under Section 4 of the Oil Pipelines Act is it a general licence for the holder to enter upon any building or enclosed court or garden attached to the building?

3. Refining of petroleum or crude oil is very important. Refining essentially involves subjecting the crude oil to a scientific process, which in the end produces products that can be marketed and distributed for our energy needs. How do you establish a refinery and are there legal provisions regulating the establishment of refineries in Nigeria?

4. Engineer Kushagi Antonpiller, a well-known expert in the petroleum Industry decided to refine hydrocarbon in a nearby place close to his farm which claim to have obtained permission. Did he commit an offence or not?

5. The establishment of a national oil company is sine qua non for State participation in oil exploration and production. The reasons for having national oil company in today's world cannot be far-fetched. Even for countries not endowed with petroleum resources, it is now almost an accepted reality. Discuss

6. The principal aim of the Organisation shall be the co-ordination and unification of the petroleum policies of Member Countries and the determination of the best means for safeguarding their interests, individually and collectively. What Organization is this? Having identify the organizations mention its seven objectives.